To Honor Bishop Worthington All the Episcopal parishes of the city are o unite this evening at Trinity cathedral in a jubilee service to be held in honor of the tenth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Worthington in this diocese. At this service the sum of $1,000, which has been alsed by the various parishes of his diocese, will be presented to the bishop as a fund for domestic missions. The proposition at first made was to present the bishop with a magnificent crozier on this anniversary, but he declined the honor. Bishop Worthing-ton has labored most diligently and faithfully in the field and it is meet that his services should be marked in some such way as this. Not only with constant fourneyings and a careful oversight of affairs has Bishop Worthington watched his flock, but also most extensive gifts of money, which have been estimated to amount to not less than the sum of $100,000 in the last ten years.
